

The background of the slide is a collage of various US dollar bills, including $1, $5, $10, and $100 denominations, arranged in a layered, overlapping fashion. The bills are slightly faded and tilted, creating a textured, financial-themed backdrop.

Budget and Career Planning

[insert presenter info]

Question 1

Because I am pregnant, I cannot separate from the Army until after my baby is born.

TRUE

FALSE

Question 2

After I separate from the Army, I can have my baby at any hospital I choose and the Army will pay for it.

TRUE

FALSE

Question 3

Can I take leave to go home and have my baby?

A

No

B

Yes, with no restrictions

C

Yes, but it is up to your commander's discretion

Question 4

If I am enlisted, where do I get maternity uniforms and how much will they cost?

A

You must purchase them at the clothing sales store at the usual cost

B

You will be issued maternity uniforms which you may keep

C

You will be issued maternity uniforms which you must return after your convalescent leave

Question 5

While I am pregnant I can be reassigned to any post in the world

A

True

B

False

C

True, but pregnant soldiers are usually not sent overseas

Question 6

When does my BAS and BAQ start?

A

You will not receive any additional money until after your baby is born.

B

Your BAS and BAQ start as soon as you know you are pregnant.

C

Your BAS and BAQ will start at 7 months and you must also move out of the barracks at that time.

Question 7

I cannot be separated from the Army for unsatisfactory performance, misconduct, or parenthood while I am pregnant.

TRUE

FALSE

Question 8

If I am going to be a single parent or am part of a dual military couple, are there any special considerations?

YES

NO

Question 9

The Women, Infant, and Children program (WIC) is only for civilians. The military has its own program.

TRUE

FALSE

Question 10

I am exempt from PT while I am pregnant.

TRUE

FALSE

Question 11

I am exempt from duty rosters (for example CQ, SDNCO, SDO) while I am pregnant.

TRUE

FALSE

The background of the slide is a collage of various US dollar bills, including $1, $5, $10, and $100 denominations, arranged in a layered, overlapping fashion. The bills are slightly faded and tilted, creating a textured, financial backdrop.

Acknowledgements

LTC E. Wayne Combs
Community Health Nurse
Directorate of Health Promotion & Wellness
US Army Center for Health Promotion &
Preventive Medicine